

CONTENTS.

VOLUME XIII.

No. 1.—Prospectus of the Joint Stock Book Company. Extracts from the Reverend Robert Taylor's 44th Oration. W. W. R. to R. C. on the Correspondence with Mr. Beard. Letter from Thomas Turton, of Sheffield, on the subject of Necessity. From a Lover of Good Distinctions. Address from Manchester to R. Carlile. Notice of the Persecution of Mr. Macartney, the Surgeon, of Dublin. Of the Christian Evidence Society. Address from the Edinburgh Zetetic Society to R. Carlile on his Liberation. Sadi and the Hermit, a dialogue. Notice of Thomas Paine's Birth-Day. Correspondence between Mr. Pritchard, the Secretary to the Society for the Suppression of Vice, and R. Carlile. James Hall not Mr. Cobbett. Notice to the Readers of "The Republican." Christ is the Devil.

No. 2.—On Thomas Paine; his Writings contrasted with the Catechism of the Continental Despots. Lines on the New Year, by Shebago. Notice of the Christian Evidence Society. The Indian's Letter, Nos. 1. and 2. and the Progress of Knowledge considered, by Shebago. On the Theatre. The Catholic Question. The God for a Shilling. A Retrospect. Letter from W. Harris, of Nottingham.

No. 3.—To Mr. J. R. Beard by R. Carlile. Notice of the Christian Evidence Society. The subject of Law considered, with Extracts from the Code Napoleon. The Trinity in Unity explained by Candid. Letter to Mr. Carlile by R. T. C. E. S. Do. by George Weir. Notice of the Joint Stock Book Company. The Morning Post and the God for a Shilling. Notice of Thomas Paine's Birth-Day. Letter to Mr. Peel on the subject of the continued Incarceration of Perry, Hassell, Clarke, and Campion. Session of Parliament. Notice of the Newgate Magazine.

No. 4.—Thomas Paine's Views of Matrimony and Regard for the Fair Sex. Letter on the Vice Society, by William Millard. Letter from G. C. of Hackney Road. From a Manchester Deist. Bristol Subscription. Reverend Robert Taylor's Fifty-Fourth Oration. Letter from a Nottingham Correspondent. Notice of the God for a Shilling; of Mr. Serjeant Firth; of the Lord

- Mayor; of the Editor of "The Age" Newspaper; of Mr. Murray's "Representative," of Paine's Birth-Day Dinner.
- No. 5.—Celebration of the Birth-Day of Thomas Paine, at the City of London Tavern, Bishopsgate Street. Where for what is the Vagrant Act? Transubstantiation, or the Real Presence in the Sacrament explained. The Resurrection of Abel Bywater. His Reasons for rejecting Atheism. Letter to him by W. W. Holmes. Reverend Robert Taylor's Fifty-Fifth Oration. More last Words about the God for a Shilling? Letter to Mr. Carlile from a Young Unitarian. A Defence of the legitimate Drama by T. R. Perry. Letter from John Butler. The King's Speech.
- No. 6.—Thomas Paine and William Cobbett, a Contrast. Motion in the Court of King's Bench in the Case of the Seized Property of R. Carlile. Reverend Robert Taylor's Fifty-Sixth Oration. A Free Translation from the French of De Beranger, by G. W. Graddons. Toasts at the Sheffield Paine Club. Correspondence between Abel Bywater and W. V. Holmes. Stewart's Lectures; Lecture I. Letter from Archibald Macleish.
- No. 7.—Free Trade versus William Cobbett. Cobbett's Ignorance. Mankind composed of Water. Notice of "Every Woman's Book." Reverend Robert Taylor's Fifty-Seventh Oration. Letter from James Lowe. Stewart's Second Lecture.
- No. 8.—Letter from Mr. John Fellows, of New York, on some Erroneous Statements made by Mr. Cobbett concerning Thomas Paine and the Republican Government of the United States of North America. Original Letter from Thomas Paine to Elihu Palmer. Fragment of a Discourse delivered to the Deistical Congregation of the City of New York, by Elihu Palmer. Observations on Mr. Fellows' Letter. Letter from Fidelitas. Report of the Bolton Proceedings on the Birth-Day of Thomas Paine. Do. from Bath. Notice of the Christian Evidence Society. Letter to the Reverend Dr. Styles, by the Reverend Robert Taylor. How to meet Death, or the Case of Edward Cook. "Hubble, bubble, toil and trouble" of the present Government. Letter from J. H. Simson. Moral Blasphemy Triumphant. The Philosophy of a Newspaper.
- No. 9.—Letter from Mr. J. R. Beard to the Reverend Robert Taylor.
- No. 10.—Letter from the same to Mr. Carlile, with Notes by the latter.
- No. 11.—Philosophical and persecuted Ministers for England's Political World turned topsy turvy. Petition to the House of Commons by the Honourable House of Moral Blasphemers. A Note to the Reverend Thomas Bowdler. Letter from Shehago in Answer to R. T. C. E. S. A Short Way of settling with Mr. Beard. Abel Bywater refuted, and his Doctrine destroyed by Candid. A Letter from Mr. James Lowe or God disturbed. Do. from Jasper Wilson. Do. from Mr. James Affleck. Do.

CONTENTS.

vii

from Cleomedes, of Aberdeen, in Exposure of the Scotch Odd Fellows. Do. from John Smart. Do. from W. V. Holmes. Reverend Robert Taylor's Fifty-Ninth Oration. Squabbles at Bible Society Meetings on the Appearance of the Reverend Rober Taylor among them.

No. 12.—Paper Money. Temple of Reason. A Letter to Mr. Beard by W. W. R. R. T. C. E. S. to Shebago and his Friends. Note from an Atheist. Stewart's Third Lecture.

No. 13.—Notice of the Joint Stock Book Company. Letter from Mr. Ward, of Yarmouth, with a Note by R. C. Politics. William Haley's Liberation. Portrait of the God of the Jews and Christians. Exposure of Free Masonry. Notice of the Christian Evidence Society. Stewart's Fourth Lecture. Letter from Ephraim Smooth. The Card of the Curate of St. James, Clerk-enwell, to his Parishioners.

No. 14.—Epitome of Materialism. Letter from Ben David, with a Note by R. C. Report of the Proceedings at the Feast of the Gridiron, with a Note in comment. Stewart's Fifth Lecture.

No. 15.—Phrenology. Ben David's Second Letter. Various Notices, including that of the Bolton Feast of the Gridiron. Stewart's Sixth Lecture.

No. 16.—To the Men and Women of Bolton, in Lancashire, good, bad, and indifferent. Letter to William Cobbett by Can- did, of Bristol. Stewart's Seventh Lecture.

No. 17.—War with Cobbett. Various Letters on the subject. Ben David's Third Letter. Stewart's Eighth Lecture.

No. 18.—To the working people of Lancashire. Letter from Amicus. Letter from the Rev. Robert Taylor to Ben David. Stewart's Ninth Lecture.

No. 19.—Memoir of Wm. Cobbett.

No. 20.—War with Cobbett. Various Letters on the subject. Notice of Every Woman's Book. Recapitulation of Stewart's Lectures.

No. 21.—Miscellaneous Notices. Letter from R. T. Webb. Letter to Mr. Barnes the Editor of "The Times." Stewart's Discourses—Introductory Discourse. Discourse I.

No. 22.—To the Electors of Members of the House of Commons. An Address to the Artizans, Mechanics, and Manufacturers of the United Kingdoms, by Legion. Liberation of Richd. Hassell. Ben David's Fourth Letter. Letter from Thomas Marshall in Defence of Every Woman's Book. Stewart's Second Discourse.

No. 23.—Letter II. to Mr. Beard, by R. Carlile. Notice of the Removal of Business to 62, Fleet-street. Story of Bababec and the Fakirs, translated from Voltaire. Letter from Mr. Robert Affleck on the Correspondence with Mr. Beard. Letter II. from Mr. J. G. Ward of Yarmouth. Ditto from the same to Ben David.

No. 24.—To Edward Polhill, Tobacconist, Southwark. Notice of the Preston Election. Letter III. from Mr. J. G. Ward. Letter from P. F. of Wigan, in Defence of Odd Fellows Societies. Extract from the Trades' Newspaper recommendatory of Mr. Maccullock's Essay on the circumstances which determine the rate of Wages, and the condition of the labouring classes. A new song, translated from the French of De Beranger. Thomas Paine's Birth Day Anniversary at New York. Stewart's Third Discourse.

No. 25.—On the General Election. Letter from Amicus Veritatis. Notices of the Newgate Magazine; of the change of place of business; of the Joint Stock Book Company; of the Christian Evidence Society; and of Mr. Cobbert's Flight from Preston. Letter from Mr. J. R. Beard offering to discuss the question of God or no God. Letter from Jno. Lee. Stewart's Fourth Discourse.

No. 26.—To the Readers of "The Republican." Correspondence between Wm. Tootal and John Cameron of Bolton. Stewart's Farewell Address.

No. 27.—State of Politics. Ben David's Fifth Letter. Letter from Wm. Millard. Letter from Robert Affleck on the closer application of the prophecies of the Old Testament to Mahomet than to Jesus Christ. Letter from Philologos on Stewart's Lectures.

No. 28.—To the Men and Women of Bolton, in Lancashire. Good, bad, and indifferent. Letter to William Cobbert by Ben David.

No. 29.—War with Cobbert. Various letters on the subject. Ben David's Third Letter. Stewart's Eighth Lecture.

No. 30.—To the working people of Lancashire. Letter from Amicus. Letter from the Rev. Robert Taylor to Ben David.

No. 31.—Stewart's Ninth Lecture. No. 32.—Memorandum of Wm. Cobbert.

No. 33.—War with Cobbert. Various letters on the subject. Notice of Every Woman's Book. Recitation of Stewart's Lectures.

No. 34.—Miscellaneous Notices. Letter from R. T. Webb. Letter to Mr. Barnes the Editor of "The Times." Stewart's Discourses—Introductory Discourse. Discourse I.

No. 35.—To the Members of the House of Commons. An Address to the Aristocracy, Mechanics, and Manufacturers of the United Kingdom, by Region. Liberator of Richard Russell.

Ben David's Fourth Letter. Letter from Thomas Marshall in Defence of Every Woman's Book. Stewart's Second Discourse.

No. 36.—Letter II. to Mr. Beard by R. G. Ward. Notice of the Removal of Business to 62, Fleet-street. Story of Tabled and the Faking, translated from Voltaire. Letter from Mr. Robert Affleck on the Correspondence with Mr. Beard. Letter II. from

Mr. J. G. Ward of Yarmouth. Letter from the same to Ben David.

No. 37.—To Edward Polhill, Tobaccoist, Southwark. Letter of